EXCUSED WITHDRAWAL INSTRUCTIONS

An excused withdrawal occurs when a student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his/her ability to complete a course(s) and may include extenuating circumstances are verified cases of accidents, illnesses or other circumstances beyond the control of the student to include a job transfer outside the geographical region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is subject to immigration action, or other extenuating circumstance making completion impracticable.

In the case of an incarcerated student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(s) was the result of the student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and was granted a mid-semester transfer.*

Students must submit this request within one year. The final deadline is the last day of the term in which the one-year period ends.
